A collage of 15 photographs showing students in various school settings. The photos include: a group of students posing together; a student in a green shirt; a student in a white hoodie; a student in a blue shirt; a student in a green shirt; a student in a white shirt; a student in a blue shirt; a student in a green shirt; a student in a white shirt; a student in a blue shirt; a student in a green shirt; a student in a white shirt; a student in a blue shirt; a student in a green shirt; a student in a white shirt. The photos are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping. The images are in color and have a slightly grainy, vintage quality. The subjects are mostly young people, likely high school or college students, engaged in various activities and posing for the camera. The settings include classrooms, hallways, and outdoor areas. The overall theme is a collection of student memories and achievements.

FCCLA week this year was a lot of fun, but it was also very serious. FCCLA week was used to raise money for Kaleb Snyder and his family. FCCLA sold crush soda's (left), held a cookie bake off (below), and collected money through a "Kiss the Pig" contest (lower right). FCCLA raised $500.00 to present to Kaleb and his family at the assembly (right). Thank you to everyone who participated!

Just one person: Snoopy and Patty

Snoopy the Musical was an absolute smash. A lot of hardwork was put in behind the scenes to create a great performance. The seniors of 2008 involved in Snoopy will definitely be missed in years to come.
